

There are SEVEN PRINCIPLES which UU congregations affirm and promote:

1. The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
2. Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
3. Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
4. A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
5. The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
7. Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Five Core Theological Questions that ground Religious Education at Unity Church-Unitarian:

2. What does it mean to be human and alive?
3. How is the Sacred present in each of us and in our lives?
4. What is the purpose of community?
5. How do we live in the face of death and loss?
