*RESPONSIVE READING “We Remember Them”
By Roland B. Gittelsohn (adapted)

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter

We remember them.

In the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring

We remember them.

In the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer

We remember them.

In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn

We remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends

We remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength

We remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart

We remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share

We remember them.

Unison: So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

Spirit of Life

Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me

Anne Hall Maclin, age 33, of St. Paul, died on May 16, 2024.

Beloved daughter of Alan and Jeanne Maclin. Also survived by sisters Molly Oliver (Carlton) and Tess Steffen (Sam), nephews Cameron and Kellen Oliver, and nieces Kennedy and Quincy Steffen. She will be dearly remembered by her large extended family of aunts, uncles and cousins.

Anne was a loving and thoughtful person, a creative artist and writer, and brilliant student. Her appreciation for the performing arts, especially music and comedy, was a gift she shared.

We have a wealth of happy memories and will forever hold Annie in our hearts.
