Arthur Foote Music Sunday

Hope, like every virtue, is a choice that becomes a practice that becomes spiritual muscle memory.

Hope is a renewable resource for moving through life as it is, not as we wish it to be.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Marg Walker

*OPENING HYMN

My Life Flows On in Endless Song
Early Quaker song, American gospel tune

My life flows on in endless song above earth's lamentation.

I hear the real though far-off hymn that hails a new creation.

Through all the tumult and the strife I hear the music ringing.

It sounds an echo in my soul. How can I keep from singing!

What though the tempest 'round me roars, I know the truth, it liveth.

What though the darkness 'round me close, songs in the night it giveth.

No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I'm clinging.

Since love, prevails in heaven and earth, how can I keep from singing!

When tyrants tremble as they hear the bells of freedom ringing,

When friends rejoice both far and near, how can I keep from singing!

To prison cell and dungeon vile our thoughts to them are winging;

When friends by shame are undefiled, how can I keep from singing!

*RESPONSIVE READING                      Desiring a Lawn, Planting Seeds — Karen Hering

Not only do the seeds need water. They require darkness too.

Enough burial under soil tilled and filled in to soften the hold of being seeds-tucked in, covered up as if for sleep so they might dream their way from husk to root to shoot and sprout.

The fine green blades at last breaking ground mounded like a grave.

Waking, rising, the thin tendrils shine like a whisper in the sun.

Why do I forget this? That what I need most and first might be the last thing I want—to bury what is, to lay down and let go of who I am now, the husk that must soften in the darkness and dreaming of uncounted nights

All: so that who I wish to become might finally take root, rise, find its way into day. I watch the grass grow, remembering this.

Each of Us Is a Flower — Charlotte Diamond/arr. Don Kalbach
*Each of us is a flower, growing in life's garden.
Each of us is a flower, we need the sun and rain.
Sun, shine your warmth on me, Moon, cool me with your night Wind, bring the gentle rain. Earth, dig my roots down deep.*

Children of the World — Berta Poorman and Sonja Poorman
*Children of the world, find a way to believe.
Children of the world, learn to give and receive.
They may live with war, they may live with peace,
yet they somehow know, love does not cease.
Children of the world, bring us hope ev'ryday.
Children of the world seem to light our way.
They may live with joy, they may live with tears,
yet they overcome their troubled fears.
Children of the world, need to grow brave and strong.
They will feel secure when they know they belong.
We must give them hope, we must give them peace,
and they will know love does not cease.
And they will know, love does not cease. Children of the world.*

Amani Utupe (Swahili) — Patsy Ford Simms

*As we travel down this weary road, amani utupe na ustawi
We need strength to carry on our load, grant us peace, give us courage
Road is rocky and the way is dark, every road has a different fork
Grant us peace, give us courage*

CENTERPIECE REFLECTION

Please Stay — Jake Runestad

Unity Singers; Julia Brown, soloist

Note from composer: Please Stay is an anthem for hope — an attempt to destigmatize mental illness and challenge all of us to support those who are battling depression and thoughts of suicide. You are not alone. We can make a difference. We can be the support system that saves a life.

To Write Love On Her Arms is a nonprofit movement dedicated to presenting hope and finding help for people struggling with depression, addiction, self-injury, and suicide. Their 2016 campaign for World Suicide Prevention Day was titled “And So I Kept Living.” Using the hashtag #IKeptLiving, thousands of individuals who battle depression shared their stories on Twitter as to why they chose life over death. I read through and collected hundreds of the tweets and used them to inspire the text for this work.

*No! Don't go!
Don't let your worst day be your last.
The storm is strong, but it will pass.
You think you can't go on another day,
but please stay. Just stay.
Hope is real. Help is real.
You are breath, you are life,
you are beauty, you are light.
Your story is not over.
You are not a burden to anyone.
Please stay. Just stay.*

(Spoken text adapted from tweets using #IKeptLiving — expressions of hope from those who battle depression and chose to live.)

Don't You Wonder, Sometimes? (excerpt from Life on Mars) — Tracy K. Smith

Tracy K. Smith is serving as the 22nd U.S. Poet Laureate and is a Pulitzer Prize winner for her 2011 volume Life on Mars.

Breathe in Hope (Maya Jackson) — Dale Trumbore

Unity Choir; Teresa Tierney, KrisAnne Weiss, soloists

Note from composer: Maya Jackson's text for Breathe in Hope began as a Facebook post responding to the violent deaths of Philando Castile and Alton Sterling. Reading Maya's words, I was drawn to her poetic call for action. When confronted with tragedy, we may instinctively search for hope and healing. In the face of violent injustice, though, maybe the hope we seek can only be found when we recognize our own accountability and ask what actions we can take to create lasting change.

*What would we do if we didn't have the privilege of being distracted
I know we must honor our personal lives.
I know we must not live in darkness.
I know we must celebrate the grace in our humanity.
To keep our lungs from collapsing.
We must breathe in hope.
And so have I. Taken in joy. And beauty. And selfishness. And frivolity. And laughter. We are wonderful. Humans.
We find the light.*

*But I fear the moment passing.
Already distracted from the fire though the smoke is still filling our lungs.*

*This is going to sound wrong. But I hope this pain lasts.
I hope that it holds. I don't want to heal just yet.
We have become experts at recovery.
I hope we become expert at Revolution.*

(Euan Tait) André Arnesen

Unity Choir, Unity Singers; Laura Sewell, cello

*Spirit, help us to hear their cries like a coming storm, surging, waters, from boats packed with fear.
Spirit, help me to see their broken stories behind their eyes: a chair overturned, the faint smear of a last meal in their abandoned room.
Sprit, help me. Spirit, help us.*

*CLOSING HYMN

Spirit, Make Us One (Kendyl Gibbons) — Jason Shelton

We proclaim a saving message, as in times of old. History give us courage; make us bold.
There is healing, there is hope for every hurting soul. Spirit give us comfort; make us whole.
Make us bold, make us bold. History give us courage, make us bold.
Make us whole, make us whole. Spirit give us comfort; make us whole.

Still let justice be the saving struggle we pursue. Conscience, give us honor; make us true.
We bear witness to the promised future now begun. Spirit, bless our journey; make us one.
Make us true, make us true. Conscience, give us honor; make us true.
Make us one, make us one. Spirit, bless our journey; make us one.

Flight Song (Euan Tait) — Kim André Arnesen

All we are, we have found in song:
you have drawn this song from us.
Songs of lives unfolding
fly overhead, cry overhead:
longing, rising from the song within.

Moving like the rise and fall of wings,
hands that shape our calling voice
on the edge of answers
you've heard our cry, you've known our cry:
music's fierce compassion flows from you.

The night is restless with the sounds we hear,
is broken, shaken by the cries of pain:
for this is music's inner voice,
saying, yes, we hear you,
all you who cry aloud,
and we will fly, answering you:
so our lives sing, sing,
wild we will fly,
wild in spirit we will fly.

Like a feather falling from the wing,
fragile as a human voice,
afraid, uncertain,
alive to love, we sing as love,
afraid, uncertain,
yet our flight begins as song.

POSTLUDE

Hope — Isaye Barnwell

Chris Crosby-Schmidt, soloist

If we want hope to survive in this world today, then every day we've got to pray on, walk on, work on, move on, march on, teach on, sing on!

*Sing, then, in whatever tongue your pain has taught you.
Sing, because the cry from all the places you have kept quiet will stall the cold, will soften the danger, will keep the world possible.*

— Mark Nepo

ABOUT THE ARTHUR FOOTE MUSIC SUNDAY TEAM

Many of you have asked how this Sunday “happens.” Well, it starts with Ruth researching and choosing music for all choirs that fit into the vision of a guiding thematic idea, then designing the flow of how things work together in the large picture. Once the selections are made, choir members contribute endless hours in preparation for their particular “piece” of the puzzle, timing for each element is worked out, and then all the practical logistics are figured out. But wait! About two-thirds of the way through this process, when all is set in motion, Marg Walker and Ruth meet together to create the “magic thread.” They discuss the underlying ideas that helped guide the musical decisions — theme, common threads, flow, pacing — and how to tie it all together with transitional text. From there, Marg heads off for her own creative writing and research. More meeting and talking, sometimes playing the music and reading the written selections together to see how it feels. It is in the moment when words and music meet, when each enhances the other, when all the singers and all of you are together, that Foote Music Sunday truly “happens.”

Marg Walker

Marg was drawn to Unity Church by its music program in 1999, and has been singing here ever since. A founding member of Unity Singers, Marg has also served as a Worship Associate, Coming of Age mentor, Trustee, and Board Chair. Marg is a writer of poetry and creative nonfiction, with an abiding interest in the human voice.

Ruth Palmer, Director of Music Ministries

Ruth Palmer has a distinguished career as an ensemble pianist, vocal coach, and choral conductor, all in pursuit of following her passion and belief in the art of singing and its importance in our human connection. Her concertizing career brought her to stages such as Alice Tully Hall, Carnegie Recital Hall, The National Gallery of Art, The Beaux Arts Society of Brussels, and locally to the Ordway McKnight Theatre and Orchestra Hall. Her work as vocal coach and ensemble pianist has been in opera, Art Song and the choral field, working with Philadelphia and Minnesota Opera companies; playing for masterclasses of Art Song greats such as Elly Ameling and Gerard Souzay; pianist for premieres of Gian Carol Menotti, Libby Larsen, Richard Hundley, Abbie Betinis, Edie Hill; as coach and pianist for national winners in the National Association of Teachers of Singing Artist Award, National Metropolitan Opera auditions and Rosa Ponselle International Vocal Competition; as Associate Conductor/Pianist of the Dale Warland Singers (2003-2004), continuing to work with Dale Warland as pianist for the Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra Chorale and Minnesota Beethoven Festival; and with the Singers-Minnesota Choral Artists and Macalester Concert Choir. For nineteen years her great joy has been sharing in the energies and love of music at Unity Church as Director of Music Ministries, and working with the committed and inspired musicians of this community.

Special thanks to Kathy Kraulik for her work as musical assistant and pianist for our three adult choirs, to Jeannine Robinett for her coaching assistance with Women's Ensemble, and to our entire outstanding music staff. Thanks and appreciation to Kim Klose (production manager), Welcome Team members and ushers, facilities staff, and all volunteers contributing to this day. Today's music made possible by funds from the Arthur Foote Music Fund and the congregation of Unity Church–Unitarian. Our thanks to all involved in this community for such strong and continued support of our music program and musicians.

Raising Kids Who Care

What gives rise to compassion? The images are everywhere. Compassion is born of brokenness. Hope takes hold first in broken hearts. And so this Mother's Day, on the verge of the start of the Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival, we're going to sing and celebrate the blues, not out of melancholy, but with that deep resilience that every mother needs to know. Rev. Rob Eller-Isaacs and worship associate Kevin Ward will lead the service. Musicians: Dean Magraw and his band, and Jayanthi.

Our Ministry of Generosity

Each Sunday, thirty percent of the offering goes to support the operating budget at Unity Church and seventy percent is given to a chosen community non-profit recipient. Please make checks payable to Unity Church. On April 29, $2,946.23 was collected in the Sunday offering. Children's Law Center Minnesota will receive a donation of $2,062.36. Information about today's offering recipient, the Arthur Foote Music Sunday Fund, is available in your order of service. On May 13 the offering recipient is the Minnesota Poor People's Campaign.
